APPLE SCAB IN HIGHMOOR FARM TESTS

Reports indicate a season of greater than average severity of apple scab in Maine. Recent examination of McIntosh trees on Highmoor Farm, in tests carried on by the Maine Agricultural Experiment Station, showed that over half the leaves of unsprayed trees were scabby, and nearly all the fruits. Adjacent trees that had received lime sulphur in five applications had scab on only seven per cent. of the leaves and on few of the fruits. On trees where fewer applications had been made, there was more scab. Judging from past experience in these tests it seems safer to apply the lime sulphur again during July, though a fortunate turn of the weather might possibly make further application of the fungicide unnecessary.

CHEAPER CUT RECIPES
By Betty Barclay

Here are two recipes for meat dishes that may be made from the cheaper cuts. They are delicious, economical and the touch of sugar used adds to the food values of the whole without increasing the cost.

Beef Loaf
1 1/2 pounds round of beef
1 quart cold water
1 tablespoon vinegar
1 teaspoon sugar
1 teaspoon sage and thyme, mixed
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
Salt and pepper

Simmer the beef in the water with the salt until meat is tender. Cook. Remove bones and fat, and chop very fine. Boil the liquid until reduced to one cup. Add vinegar, sugar, sage, sauce, thyme, salt and pepper. Mix with the meat. Press into a buttered mold and have to become thoroughly cold. Serve with tomatoes and lettuce with mayonnaise.

Stuffed Flank Steak
Have a flank steak trimmed and scored; that is, cut all over the surface in cross-criss pattern. Mix together one cup bread crumbs, one small onion, chopped, one-half cup grated raw carrot, one-half cup finely diced celery, one tablespoon minced parsley, one teaspoon sugar, salt and pepper to taste, and one cup milk. Spread this mixture over the flank steak. Roll up as tightly as possible. Tie firmly and sprinkle with flour, pepper and salt. Brown quickly in hot fat. Then place in a covered pan and bake in a moderate oven for one and one-half hours. Baste two or three times during the cooking with one of two tablespoons butter melted in one-third cup boiling water. When done, remove the strings. Serve with brown gravy made from the fat in the pan.

MACEDOINE SALAD
2 cups cooked rice
1 cup peas
4 tablespoons pimento
2 tablespoons celery, minced
2 tablespoons cheese, grated
1 teaspoon salt
Combine ingredients lightly, chill. Serve on crisp lettuce with French dressing or mayonnaise.

STUFFED TOMATO SALAD
6 tomatoes
1 cup cooked rice
1 1/2 cups celery, diced
1 cup onion, minced
1 hard boiled egg
2 tablespoons pimento
Small onion, minced
Seasoning, Dressing
Scoop out centers of tomatoes and chop. Mix ingredients together and season with salt, vinegar and any other desired seasonings. Refill tomato shells and serve with any salad dressing.

GOLDEN COCOANUT SHORTCAKE
8 thin slices sponge cake
Orange Sauce
3 oranges, sections free from membrane
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup milk
Allow two slices sponge cake for each serving. Place first slice of sponge cake on plate, cover with orange sauce, orange sections, coconut and additional orange sauce. Cover with second piece of sponge cake and top with orange sauce and orange slices. Sprinkle with coconut. Garnish with whipped cream around base if desired. Serves 4.

COCOANUT CABINET PUDDING
1 package strawberry-flavored gelatin
1 1/2 cups boiling water
1 cup strawberries, crushed and drained
1 1/2 cups sugar
1 1/2 cups vanilla
1 1/2 cups apricots, sliced
1 1/2 cups coconut, southern style
Combine egg yolks, sugar and salt with 2 cups milk and cook in double boiler until mixture coats the spoon, stirring constantly; sugar gelatin in 1-4 cup milk. Fold in strawberries and sugar. Stir until gelatin dissolves. Add vanilla. Strain custard into mold, filling 1-2 inches deep. Chill until firm. Dip lady fingers into strawberry mixture and line sides of mold. Fill center of mold with alternate layers of apricots, remaining custard and coconut. Chill until firm. Unmold. Garnish with additional apricot halves, whipped cream and strips of angelica. Serves 8.

STRAWBERRY WHIP
1 package strawberry-flavored gelatin
1 cup boiling water
1 cup strawberries, crushed and drained
1 1/2 cups sugar
1 1/2 cups vanilla

Echoes From Old Newspaper
An Advertiser Printed Forty-Six Years Ago

A copy of Oxford County Advertiser, printed Nov. 20, 1885, reached this office through the thoughtfulness of Mr. Robert F. W. Sauls, who was publisher and served four pages of nine columns each.

Looking back forty-six years we may review our memory of greatly and very important at the time reported. In the Norway locals we read about Chas. G. Blake starting for Ridgeway, Pa., to become bookkeeper for the Thompson Lumber Co.

"Comical Brown", the traveling comedian, played to a good house. His assistant was Miss Isadore Brunscomb. Brown's facial expressions were said to be at "their best" for years. (Ed. note. He was the homeliest man ever made and had fifty-seven varieties of facial expression. He was a good show, but drew the coin. He lived to see the day when a generation grew up that knew not Brown and he hopped as a showman. In spite of getting together a small fortune and the evil day came. According to one report, Brown died in poverty, leaving only a memory of a real entertainer for his time.)

A four act drama, "Better than Gold" had in the cast of characters, C. S. Akers, W. A. Ripley, C. F. Ridlon, C. E. Rikers, H. E. Smith, Miss Estelle Barker, Miss Carrie Beaudet and Mrs. Effie Akers.

The corn factory closed the season with about 300,000 casks of corn and beans in the sack.

Plenty of ducks are reported in lower Kezar pond. They are shy and only a few have been killed.

Thomas Jefferson of Sweden sailed for Kezar pond. They are shy and only a few have been killed.

At Denmark, C. B. Smith is cutting the pine and hemlock on the Loveland farm. (formerly the Brackett homestead) and hauling it into Little Pond to be driven to Saco River. Hastings & Pike of Fryeburg own the lumber.

Ship manufacturing in Denmark, once a profitable industry, is entirely suspended. Shippers in Cuba are sending sugar in bags, claiming it cheaper, lighter and more convenient than the cane.

A man, who had been working in Gilead called at the Bethel liquor agency. Algernon Chapman, the agent, refused to sell the rum desired. Chapman was as good as a shadow. Before Trial Justice Gibson, the strong man was given the choice of thirty days or a fine with costs of $14.00.

A small crop scare at Oxford is driving those afflicted with the small pox.

In thirteen or more columns of advertising, William C. Leavitt and F. W. Sanborn of Norway are the only local ones now in business. They are the only ones now in business. They are the only ones now in business.

A Letter of Thanks And Appreciation to the People

SATURDAY, JULY 25TH, brings to a close the most satisfactory sale—judging it from every angle—we have ever enjoyed since the inception of this business, and we wish to thank the many hundreds of our patrons and friends from near and far who have so kindly responded to our Call.

It has been a very great pleasure, indeed, to have been able to supply your many needs at prices unheard of in these parts: There are still three more days remaining before we say Au Revoir—and to make the final last dash we have made further reductions so that the memory of this—the greatest selling event in our history—may not be readily forgotten.

Thank you.

Barrows, of the Paris Trust Company. You may be sure that your generosity will be appreciated by The Salvation Army, by this committee, and by the distressed men, women and children you will help.
